

We are an experienced, traditional and owner-managed company in the middle of Germany. Development and production of a wide range of bicycles for all target groups is our mission and commitment to urban mobility.

Would you like to gain first practical experience in quality management of a producing company? Then come to us as a

Student Trainee (m/f/d) Quality Management Department

Job description

- Support in the development of our integrated quality management system and in the revision of the process documentation
- Becoming acquainted with different practical quality control methods
- Project work

Your profile

- Advanced studies in engineering or business economics
- Ideally, first practical experience in an industrial environment and with quality matters
- Interested in technical products
- Sense of responsibility
- Organized and structured way of working
- Readiness to independently familiarize yourselves with new fields of activity
- Good knowledge of German and English language in spoken and written is compulsory
- Very good knowledge in MS-Office
- Target-oriented way of working and flexibility
- Communication ability and capacity for teamwork

Are you interested? Please send your application preferably online (only in pdf-format) including your complete documents (curriculum vitae indicating your nationality, certificate of matriculation, current grades, relevant certificates and proof of the standard period of study, earliest possible start date). If you are a citizen of a country outside the European Economic Area, please add your residence permit respectively your work permit.

Sachsenring Bike Manufaktur GmbH

Human Resources Department, Ms. Schenk
Kyselhäuser Straße 23, D-06526 Sangerhausen
Phone: +49-(0)3464 9019 282
e-mail: steffi.schenk@sachsenring-bike.de www.sachsenring-bike.de